

Directions for Babysitter's Backpack

Intro: The letter of the day is B! B makes a special sound. Can you make the b sound?

Have any of you ever had a babysitter come to play with you when your parents were away? Did you hear the b sound in Babysitter? Let's practice the b sound with the Babysitter's Backpack game.

Put the Backpack up on the flannel board.

Say something like this:

"Tonight my babysitter is coming to play.

She always brings fun things.

Let's help her pack her backpack."

Then ask the children to help you select what should go into the backpack.

Offer choices, like:

"Should she bring Broccoli or a Blanket?"

Or "Which Bottle should she bring? A Bottle of milk or a Bottle of ketchup?"

When you ask each question, put up the corresponding illustrations.
