

Five Spotted Cows

Five spotted cows standing in a line.

The first one said, "I'm feeling fine!"

The second one said, "How do you do?"

The third one said, "Moo, moo, moo!"

The fourth one said, "I'm grazing in the grass."

The fifth one said, "I'm full at last!"

So the cows stood together, and they said,

"Now we're through,

Let's take a bow and all say, Moo!"
