

EVERY HERO HAS A STORY

Story Time Kits:

On the Go #2 Ideas: Emergency vehicles

Friendly Monsters #10 Ideas: Battle a monster; Monsters often have superpowers

Feelings #12 Ideas: How does it feel to be a superhero? Feelings make the story super?

Moving House #16 Ideas: Neighborhood/Local Heroes

Pirates #17 Ideas: Supervillains; Navy personnel (the heroes) capture pirates (the villains)

Active Play #20 Ideas: Superhero training program

Folder Stories:

Lola Loves Stories: Community hero hats

Red Light, Green Light: Superhero/Community hero training program

My Many Colored Days: Superheroes that can transform into animals

Shapes In the Sky: Superheroes flying in the clouds

My Many Colored Capes: Capes give different abilities

Maker Kits:

Robot #1 Ideas: Battle Robots; Robot Heroes; Evil Robots

Circuits #2 Ideas: Squishy Circuits glow creatures; LilyPad glowing eyed villains

Mini Weapons #3 Ideas: Superhero/Supervillain battles; Make your own utility belt gadgets

Builder #4 Ideas: Make your own city to protect, Design heroes and villains out of building toys

Book Repurposing #5 Ideas: Cut/fold books into superhero logos, images, or names

Photo Booth #6 Ideas: Superhero/villain photo shoot

Break It reMake It #7 Ideas: Only superheroes can make their own computers; Make strange monsters and villains from computer pieces

LEGO #8—11 Ideas: Make your own city to protect, Design heroes & villains out of LEGO bricks, Create a LEGO maze for mini superheroes; Make superhero logos from LEGOS

