Website Accessibility in Marion December 12, 2018 Marion City Library 10:00 – 12:00

Description: In this hands on session we will discuss what Website Accessibility means. The goal is that all websites are accessible to all Americans with disabilities. We will use a free tool to scan your website and see first-hand your site, based on the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines. We will discuss how to address issues found.

Canva for Infographics and other Designs December 18, 2018 NKCLS Office 10:00 – 12:00

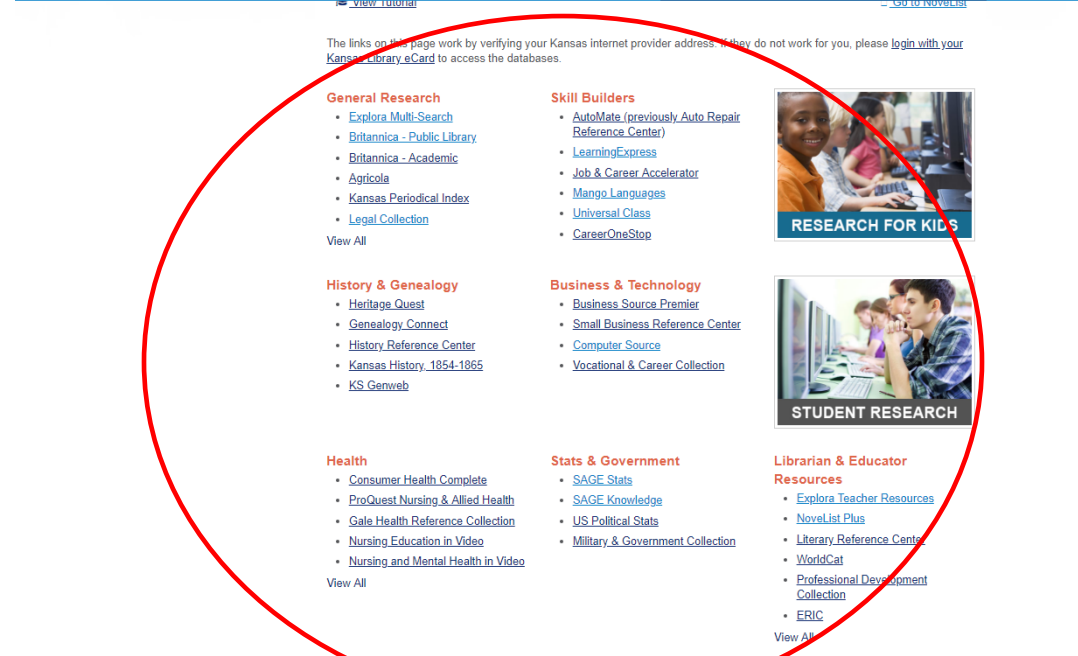

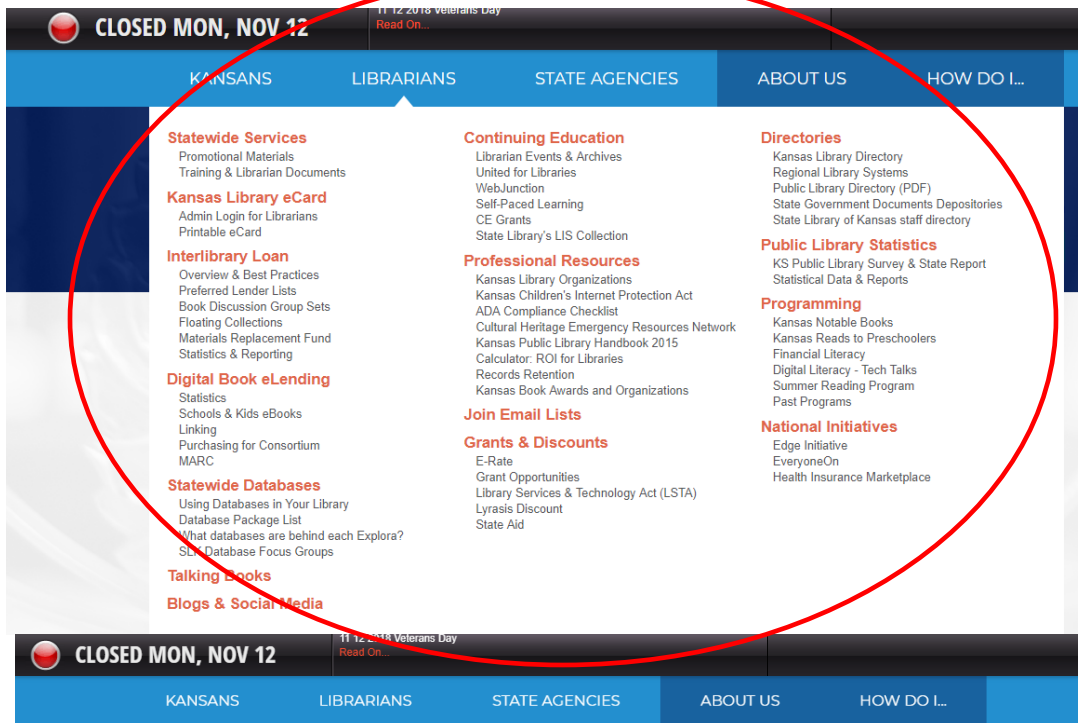

Description: Canva is a free web-based design tool where you can create flyers, social media images, posters, infographics, and more.

In this hands on session, you will learn how to use Canva, how to find tutorials for assistance, and you will create your own design. The Canva designs are saved in .jpg, .png, and .pdf formats.

If you use or have used Publisher, or have used Print Master at one time, this would be a good session for you to attend. If you make flyers, posters, and work with images, this would be a good workshop to attend. If you are interested in creating infographics this is a good session to attend.
