

Federal Record Retention Requirements

The following chart includes federal requirements for record-keeping and retention of employee files and other employment-related records. Individual states also have requirements not addressed here; therefore, employers should review state employment laws for additional record-keeping and retention obligations.

Some of the following requirements apply to most or all employers, while others apply primarily to government contractors and subcontractors. Employers should review the laws to determine employer coverage and responsibilities. For further information on employment laws, see the Employment Law section of the SHRM website.
